Oak Class Trip

Last Wednesday, Oak class had their very first trip on a coach! They were joined by Reception from East Hoathly as they walked around the gardens of Herstmonceux castle. The children had a fantastic time hunting for different items in the gardens and then spent time carefully looking at the different features of the castle whilst drawing it. The children and adults all enjoyed an ice cream to cool down after an exploration of the grounds and a picnic lunch.

Ethan wrote a fantastic piece about their trip:

"Last week we went to the castle and we had fruit at Herstmonceux castle and we went in the top of the dungeon and we went to the haunted room."
