

Forest School—Oak Class

This week Oak Class had their first Forest School session at Chiddingly! They were dragons in training school just like Zog: flying, roaring and even breathing fire (squirting water!). They made dragons from sticks and using leaves as the wings. They had so much fun using the mud kitchen and water station, bug hunting and toasting marshmallows. They also burnt their letters on the fire to send to Zog!

