1.	Reconnect: What do we know about special places for Christians? Do you know other special places in other religions?  LO: Lets talk about our favourite stories and why we like them  One way of starting this off is to ask children to bring thei favourite books and stories from home, or you could choose your favourite book and explain why it is special to you. Read and enjoy the story and talk about what happens, can they retell it? You could use role play or paint the main events as a class. Record their words in observations, postit notes, photographs of them role playing and discussing the stories. These could be captured in the floor book.  Future learning links: What bible stories do you know? Do you know any stories about Jesus?
2	Reconnect: What special stories did we talk about last week? Why were they special to me/you? LO Lets talk about stories about Jesus, what was he like? Talk about the bible being the holy book for Christians and it is special to them as it helps them understand God. Look at range of child friendly bibles to see how they are similar and different. Read one of the bible stories such as ‘what Jesus teaches about being friends with the friendless in the story of Zaccheaus. Talk about what these stories tell us and record the children’s comments. Create artwork to represent the story and all to floor book. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Fe7dTNI6h8
