1.	WALT: Tell stories from the Bible and recognise a link with the concept of ‘Gospel’ or ‘Good News’ Reconnect: Discuss what the bible is, and its importance to Christians. Input: Ask children to come up with a list of 12 people or professions to change the world: who would they choose and why? The New Testament describe the 12 people Jesus chose- they were not necessarily the kinds of people the children might expect. Read, dramatize and illustrate the story of Matthew the Tax Collector (Matthew 9:9-13). Tax collectors were reviled by the Jewish people because they worked for the occupying Roman forces. Explore how and why Matthew’s life was changed by his encounter with Jesus, ‘friend of the friendless’ – compare this with the story of Zacchaeus, Luke 19:1-10. These accounts are part of the ‘Gospel’ of Jesus, meaning ‘good news’. Plenary: What was the ‘good news’ Jesus brought?
2	WALT: Recognise that Jesus gives instructions to people about how to forgive Reconnect: What was the good news Jesus brought in the story of Matthew? Input: Read/ watch the story of Luke 6:37-38. Jesus teaches his followers that God forgives them, but they need to forgive others too. Talk about who needs forgiveness and how people might feel if they are forgiven. Collect child’s voice about real life examples they may have experienced or can think of. Talk about why forgiveness from God is good news for Christians and why forgiveness from people is important to all of us. Plenary: Talk about what happens if someone does not forgive, compared to if they do?
3	WALT: Recognise that Jesus gives instructions to people about how to find peace. Reconnect: What is forgiveness, and why is it good news?

Talk about the things which stop you from having peace such as illness, worry, conflict. How do you find peace? Collect responses from children through talk, drawings, or writing. How do you think Christians receive peace from Jesus? If they believe Jesus loves them and forgives them, how does that bring them peace? Plenary: How is Peace good news for Christians?
