Anti Bullying Week

This week is Anti Bullying Week. The theme of the week, chosen by the Anti Bullying Alliance is 'Choose Respect'. We began the week with an assembly sharing the Child Friendly Anti Bullying Policy and discussing what respect means.

Each class has been learning about respect including sharing what they value and respect about each other, designing posters and learning about being kind to each other.

In this week's Celebration Assembly, each class shared their learning with Miss Lewis and the rest of the school.

Ruby in Year 6 said "This week, we've made Anti-Bullying posters with the 'Choose Respect' theme on it and we've done a competition to decide whose poster is the most eye-catching and has the most information. From Anti-Bullying Week, I learnt that if someone is bullying you, it is most likely to make themselves better."

Reception's Visit to East Hoathly Bonfire

The children in Reception have been learning about different celebrations that involve noisy activities such as fireworks! Last Friday, they went on a walk through the village and visited the Bonfire structure that is built by members of the carnival society. They looked at the shapes and the design of the bonfire and discussed what it meant.

When they got back to school the children used their creative skills to draw their own versions of the bonfire and talked about why it helps the people in the village remember.

A few of the staff attended the Bonfire Celebrations on Saturday and would like to say how impressed they were with the children who were part of the celebration and how mature and respectful members of our school community were during the memorial part of the evening.

Year 3/4 Village Hall

To mark the special birthday of Prince Charles, the idea came to organise a coffee, tea and cake morning to raise money for AGE UK and most of all to lift the community spirit. Because of this, I contacted the school to see if they wanted to make an appearance in the Village Hall and do something that would fit in the school programme.

On the morning of the 14th of November, pupils from Year 3 and 4 came to the especially decorated VH to show their works of art: beautiful paintings of Prince Charles. We have hung them on the wall and the pupils had a glass of squash and a tangerine decorated with a flag of different countries. They sang Happy Birthday and three cheers joined with all present.

Later, the Chairman of WDC arrived and he was asked to choose his number one painting. It was not easy because everybody had worked really hard, but he chose Esther's painting. The paintings were left on the wall so other people could see them.

It made our morning to see a group of enthusiastic pupils and their teachers and their assistants to mark this day.

A big thank you to all of you.
