International Day

On Tuesday 11th February, we will be holding our latest International Day. The country of interest is Australia, as the children asked to learn more after the recent events.

We have a special menu provided by Chartwells for the day, the menu is attached to the newsletter.

We ask for children to wear one item of green and gold clothing for the day and if they have any artefacts to share, the children would be most welcome to bring them in.

We will have a celebration assembly in the church at 2:30pm to share our learning for the day. We hope to see you there!
