What do your children understand about our values- 'Love, Strength, Wisdom and Truth'?	 Both children know the values To be kind and try your best She has grasped them and talks about them in her context They know that there are core values within the school and they are proud when they achieve They know what they mean and how to show them I am sure (Child) understands although he might not always show them. Being kind, working with others and being honest and thankful
Do you use the school website at home? How?	 I check for info Check for term dates or lunches Yes I use it - Not often = But I use the parentmail app a lot. Yes to keep up to date Yes to look for term dates Not really To check term dates Term dates Rarely - only if I need to check something
What does your child know about e-safety from their learning at school? (e.g. staying safe on the internet)	 There is lots of information about to be safe on the internet They know how to be safe online and about parental controls He knows not to click on things he doesn't know Not meeting strangers or going onto inappropriate sites They understand He knows not to talk to people he doesn't know online They are aware about e-safety
What are our strengths?	 Great teachers, comprehensive development of children and they spend a lot of time in the fresh air Communication and support The school has really impressed me in every aspect Communication Good communication and good staff Very friendly and approachable staff. Child focused and the children have lots of fun. Wide range of extracurricular activities Friendly and caring Pastoral Care I like that all the children know each other and are happy to play with the different age groups

	 'beautifully nurturing and good communication regarding how child is getting on. Acceptance, Flexibility and kept informed Encouraging community throughout the whole school
What we could we improve?	• More clubs would be good
Any other comments that you would like to make?	 Child enjoys school, I see positive progress and I am grateful to the teachers for their work. A breakfast or before school club would be good.
