weekly newsletter

TERM 1, WEEK 3

A very big well done Peacocks! You have been brilliant! This week we will be starting our new topic 'What makes me super?'. We will be getting to know each other better and learn about each others families.. We will be creating an 'All about me' book' and practising sharing our ideas in front of others, and asking and answering questions. Alongside this we will be continuing to recognise and start to write our name. Drawing club has been a huge success. This week we will be exploring a favourite book of mine 'Squiggles on the loose'.

PHONICS

- This week we are focusing on introducing the first graphemes and orally blending.
- Our focus sound are: 's', 'a', 't', 'p'.
- Our HFW and Tricky words are: a, as, at.

CERTIFICATES:

Double certificates next week. On Friday (11/9) we joined our first house meeting of the year and voted for our house captains.

REMINDERS

- Please can named wellies and waterproofs be brought in to stay at school, so that we can access the outside area in all weather.
- Please can any books the children have borrowed please come back after they have read them.

AT A GLANCE

- PLEASE CAN YOU BRING IN A FAMILY PHOTO.
- Reading and discussing 'The invisible string' and 'Marvellous me'.
- Drawing club: 'Squiggles on the loose'.
- Create an all about me booklet.
- Share more about ourselves and what are favourite things are.
- Scavenger hunt around the school to learn where everything is and who all the teachers are.
- Enjoy learning and playing together as we discover more about our classroom.
- Learn about number 1.
- Learning more of our school routines, such as 'proud work tasks', saying our lunchtime prayer etc.
- Continue RBA's.
- Learn to recognise our name.
- Trace and build our name, looking at the letters in our name.
- Paint and draw a family portrait.
- Build a house out of lollypop sticks and draw our families inside.

EXTRA

What a joy this week has been. It has been a pleasure to get to know the children and their families more.

The children have jumped straight in and are starting to understand and independently complete the morning and afternoon routines. I look forward to getting to know you more and what makes you all super!

Thank you for your continued support, From Miss Deane.
