

OPENING NIGHT

Innkeeper

1. You say to relax,
These curtains don't match,
This carpet looks quite appalling.
You say to be calm,
It smells like a farm,
I feel like I might be balding.
Too much to do!
No time to lose!

All

CHORUS

*So have a little faith
It will be okay, it will be alright.
So cast your worries aside,
It's a brand new day
And the future's bright.
It's only opening night!
Opening night!*

Innkeeper

2. You say that 'it's fine',
I hate this design,
Who told me this pattern's trending?
You say not to rush,
The toilet won't flush,
So much for a happy ending.
Too much to do!
No time to lose!

CHORUS All (with optional harmony)
