Subject: How has the geography of Greece shaped its people? Prior learning: Continents (KS1), South America, Key Concept/ Theme: Place Knowledge Next Steps in Learning: How does the geography of Egypt influence its people? Why is Europe so good for holidays? When and where would you go? Vocabulary: island, mainland, tourism, monuments, landmarks, topography, terrain, trade, weather, climate, border 1.
Key Concept/ Theme: Place Knowledge Next Steps in Learning: How does the geography of Egypt influence its people? Why is Europe so good for holidays? When and where would you go? Vocabulary: island, mainland, tourism, monuments, landmarks, topography, terrain, trade, weather, climate, border 1. How can we describe the geography of Greece? Prior learning reconnection (year group, cycle & term): Continents, specifically Europe Activity: Explore geography of Greece using atlas, Google Earth Label key human and physical features of Greece- islands, main cities, mountains, bordering countries, seas Future learning links: What might this mean for the people living there? 2 What are the main Greek Islands? What makes them unique? May take two Next Steps in Learning: How does the geography of Egypt influence its people? Why is Europe so good for holidays? When and where would you go? Vocabulary: island, mainland, tourism, monuments, landmarks, topography, terrain, trade, weather, climate, border 1.
How does the geography of Egypt influence its people? Why is Europe so good for holidays? When and where would you go? Vocabulary: island, mainland, tourism, monuments, landmarks, topography, terrain, trade, weather, climate, border 1. How can we describe the geography of Greece? Prior learning reconnection (year group, cycle & term): Continents, specifically Europe Activity: Explore geography of Greece using atlas, Google Earth Label key human and physical features of Greece- islands, main cities, mountains, bordering countries, seas Future learning links: What might this mean for the people living there? 2 What are the main Greek Islands? What makes them unique? May take two
Why is Europe so good for holidays? When and where would you go? Vocabulary: island, mainland, tourism, monuments, landmarks, topography, terrain, trade, weather, climate, border 1. How can we describe the geography of Greece? Prior learning reconnection (year group, cycle & term): Continents, specifically Europe Activity: Explore geography of Greece using atlas, Google Earth Label key human and physical features of Greece- islands, main cities, mountains, bordering countries, seas Future learning links: What might this mean for the people living there? 2 What are the main Greek Islands? What makes them unique? May take two Vocabulary: island, mainland, tourism, monuments, landmarks, topography, terrain, trade, weather, climate, border 1. How can we describe the geography of Greece? Prior learning reconnection (year group, cycle & term): Continents, specifically Europe Activity: Explore geography of Greece using atlas, Google Earth Label key human and physical features of Greece- islands, main cities, mountains, bordering countries, seas Future learning links: What might this mean for the people living there? 2 What are the main Greek Islands? What makes them unique? May take two
1. How can we describe the geography of Greece? Prior learning reconnection (year group, cycle & term): Continents, specifically Europe Activity: Explore geography of Greece using atlas, Google Earth Label key human and physical features of Greece- islands, main cities, mountains, bordering countries, seas Future learning links: What might this mean for the people living there? 2 What are the main Greek Islands? What makes them unique? May take two Prior learning reconnection (year group, cycle & term): Continents, specifically Europe Activity: Explore geography of Greece using atlas, Google Earth Label key human and physical features of Greece- islands, main cities, mountains, bordering countries, seas Future learning links: What might this mean for the people living there? What are the main Greek Islands? What makes them unique? May take two Activity: Explore geography of Greece using atlas, Google Earth Label key human and physical features of Greece- islands, main cities, mountains, bordering countries, seas Future learning links: What might this mean for the people living there? 2
Label key human and physical features of Greece- islands, main cities, mountains, bordering countries, seas Future learning links: What might this mean for the people living there? 2
Future learning links: What might this mean for the people living there? 2 What are the main Greek Islands? What makes them unique? May take Reconnect- How many features of Greece can we name?
Future learning links: What might this mean for the people living there? 2 What are the main Greek Islands? What makes them unique? May take Reconnect- How many features of Greece can we name?
May take Reconnect- How many features of Greece can we name?
two
Two
rest of the class. Find out- key town/city, main food, monuments or buildings, history, population, weather, special features, why do people visit?	ıe
After the presentations, vote which island they would most like to visit and give reasons why; create class graph
3. What are the similarities and differences between ancient and modern Greece?
Reconnect; How many Greek islands can they name in two minutes?
Activity; similarities and differences chart- specifically features- weather, terrain, ports, trade, tourism, monuments, landmarks
What would have changed? Why? Compare pictures of modern Athens and Crete with visuals of ancient Greece
What do the Greek people do now for a living? Has this changed? How?
4. GREEK DAY

5. What is life like in Greece today?

Assessment piece- create factsheet/ leaflet/ report about modern Greece- what have you learned?

End points:

- To know and name some Greek Islands.
- To know similarities and differences between ancient and modern Greece.
- To know the impact that the geography of Greece has on its people