Stonegate CoE Primary School is a small rural school in set in a beautiful village location. We are part of the expanding Pioneer Federation and have a creative approach to all aspects of school life and a vision of nurturing life-long learners.

Are you someone who:

- loves to inspire and engage children to be lifelong learners
- really loves working as part of a team to make a difference to children's lives
- is able to deliver engaging lessons for a variety of learning styles
- has new ideas and likes to share them
- likes to be involved in the whole life of the school
- is energetic, motivated and caring
- is organised, flexible and has high expectations

If so, then we can offer you:

- friendly, motivated children eager to learn
- fabulous CPD opportunities
- dedicated, hard working colleagues
- a supportive leadership team and Governing Body

Please telephone Lucy Hazeldine (Head of School) for more information about the post. Visits to the school are warmly welcomed. Application packs (to be returned to both emails provided) are available from

Interview Date: Wednesday, 22 April 2026

ABOUT US
